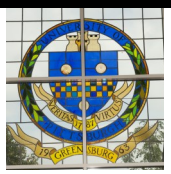
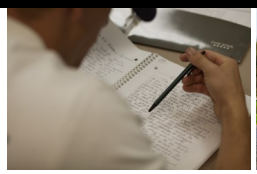
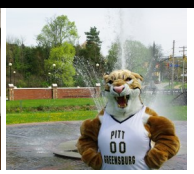
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH AT GREENSBURG

Psychology

undergraduate program







Psychology

38 credits
Bachelor of Science

Psychology is the scientific study of human behavior and deals with learning and motivation, perception, development and adjustment of human personality, social relations, and methods of research used in analyzing human behavior. Practicum and research experiences are available to qualified students.

Employment:

* Counseling
* Psychotherapy
* Case management
* Mental health services
* Physical health/wellness
* Crisis work
* Art therapy
* Music therapy
* Community relations
* Fund raising
* Grant writing
* Market research
* Behavior Analysis
* Psychological research

www.greensburg.pitt.edu

Fall 2019

Introductory Course Requirement 1 course - 3 credits

PSY 0010	Introduction to Psychology

Core Courses 3 courses - 9 credits

Three of the following courses:

PSY 0105	Social Psychology
PSY 0160	Psychology of Personality
PSY 0310 PSY 0311	Developmental Psychology OR Lifespan Development
PSY 0410	Human Cognition
PSY 1205	Abnormal Psychology

Research Courses 2 courses - 8 credits

PSY 0032	Research Methods

One of the following:

PSY 0402 PSY 0330	Experimental Learning OR Experimental Child Psychology

Electives 5 courses - 15 credits

Five additional Psychology courses.
 PSY 0004 Psychology Career Planning Seminar is highly recommended for Psychology majors with 30 or more credits.*

Additional Requirement 1 course - 3 credits

After earning 90 credits, all Psychology majors must take PSY 1925 - Senior Thesis, to fulfill the capstone course requirement.

General Education Requirements

Psychology majors must take the following as part of their General Education Requirements:

STAT 0200	Basic Applied Statistics (4 cr.)