AIM Workshop: Keys to Success Discussion Questions

Directions: Watch the AIM Workshop Keys to Success and answer the following questions. Bring this form with you to your advising appointment for Fall registration.

1. List 2 purposes for taking notes in class.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

2. Name the 5 R’s of note taking. Which R do you think is most important? Explain your reasoning.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

3. Explain how the cue-column is used in the Cornell note-taking system.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

4. Which note-taking system is most beneficial to you? Give two reasons in your explanation.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

5. Which study tip from slide 11 do you think would be the most helpful for you? Explain why.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

6. When does studying for a test begin?

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

7. Identify 3 strategies mentioned when preparing for a test.
8. Discuss 2 tips for taking an objective test. (multiple choice, true/false)

9. Identify and justify the most important tip for taking an essay test.

10. What is the BEST way to conquer test anxiety?

11. Why is it beneficial to write upcoming events on both a big monthly calendar as well as a daily planner?

12. Name 2 UPG resources available to its students.

Write 1 SMART goal (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic, Timely) to assist you with improving your academic career.

Example: I will study 5 nights per week, 2 hours each night, for the semester.