The statistics course rotation is as follows:

Every Semester (Introductory statistics courses):
- Basic Applied Statistics (STAT 0200)
- Applied Statistical Methods (STAT 1000)
- Probability and Statistics for Management (STAT 1100)

Three semester sequence of upper-level courses (may be taken in any order):
- Applied Regression (STAT 1221, Fall 2015)
- Introduction to Probability (STAT 1151, Spring 2016)
- Statistical Quality Control (STAT 1251, Fall 2016)

Individualized courses in statistics:
- Statistics Internship (STAT 1900)
- Statistics Teaching Assistant (STAT 1955)