Psychology
Clinical/Counseling Focus

Undergraduate Program

Psychology
38-39 credits
Bachelor of Science

The Clinical/Counseling focus within the Psychology major provides course recommendations for those interested in careers appropriate for an undergraduate diploma involving various types of psychological interventions and assessments.

Employment:
* Counseling
* Psychotherapy
* Case management
* Mental health services
* Physical health/wellness
* Crisis work
* Art therapy
* Music therapy
* Social Work
* Assessment
* Grant writing
* Prevention
* Behavior Analysis
* Psychological research

Introductory Course Requirement
1 course - 3 credits

PSY 0010 Introduction to Psychology

Core Courses
3 courses - 9 credits

PSY 0160 Psychology of Personality
PSY 0310 or PSY 0311 Developmental Psychology OR Lifespan Development
PSY 1205 Abnormal Psychology

Research Courses
2 courses - 8 credits

PSY 0032 Research Methods

One of the following:
PSY 0402 Experimental Learning OR PSY 0330 Experimental Child Psychology

Electives
5 courses - 15-16 credits

One of the following:
PSY 1210 Introduction to Clinical Psychology (3 cr.) OR PSY 1211 Clinical Psychology Laboratory (4 cr.)

Two of the following:
PSY 0022 Intro to Existentialism
PSY 0186 Cross-Cultural Psychology
PSY 1025 Tests and Measurement
PSY 1035 Drugs and Behavior
PSY 1056 Forensic Psychology
PSY 1215 Health Psychology
PSY 1370 Family Psychology
PSY 1420 Principles of Behavior
PSY 1475 Applied Beh. Analysis
PSY 1485 Adv. Beh. Analysis
PSY 1495 Adv. Beh. Analysis II
PSY 1525 Neuropsychology
PSY 1720 Psy. Study of Trauma

Any two additional Psychology courses
(Note: Only two of the following courses may be applied toward the Psychology major—PSY 1820, 1910, 1912, 1913, 1920)

* PSY 0004 Psychology Career Planning Seminar is highly recommended for majors with 30 or more credits.

Additional Requirement
1 course - 3 credits

After earning 90 credits, all Psychology majors must take PSY 1925 - Senior Thesis, to fulfill the capstone course requirement.

General Education Requirements
Psychology majors must take the following as part of their General Education Requirements:

STAT 0200 Basic Applied Statistics (4 cr.)