These scholarships are offered to the highest ranking students who apply to Pitt-Greensburg from each of the six public and parochial schools in Westmoreland County that were instrumental in the founding of Pitt-Greensburg in 1963. Those school districts include: Greensburg Salem, Greensburg Central Catholic, Hempfield, Jeannette, Latrobe, and Norwin.

The PGAA promotes fellowship among alumni and works to create a lifelong connection between graduates and the University—thus building their commitment and support. The PGAA also sponsors two scholarships for incoming freshman that are renewable up to four years as long as the students meet the criteria. Funds are also used to rec-
