D'Youville College School of Pharmacy, Buffalo, NY

<http://www.dyc.edu/academics/schools-and-departments/pharmacy/programs-and-degrees/pharmacy-pharmd.aspx>

D'Youville College is an urban campus close to downtown Buffalo, the vibrant canal-side, and the Peace Bridge which links the United States and Canada. Our state-of-the-art Pharmacy Building boasts stunning views of the Buffalo skyline and Niagara Falls. Our program is designed to prepare students to practice in an inter-professional patient-centered environment where pharmacists are responsible for assisting patients in managing their medication regimens. Graduates of the program will be taught to communicate effectively with patients and other health care practitioners, to solve problems related to drug therapy regimens, and to develop and evaluate programs to improve the health of the communities they serve. D'Youville College's School of Pharmacy offers a mix of didactic and small group learning opportunities where students and faculty work together to ensure topics are explored from multiple perspectives. Our unique school calendar grants a 2-week break mid-semester which allows students to fully immerse themselves within their rotation. Since classes are not held during rotations, students are afforded the opportunity to participate in both U.S. and International IPPE and APPE rotations starting in the First Professional year of study. The D'Youville College mission's emphasis on leadership and service to the community is reflected in the pharmacy program. Students will practice leadership skills while working collaboratively with their colleagues and the faculty on problem sets, case analyses, and class and service projects. Through class exercises and practice experiences the new pharmacy program will teach students to care for patients and communities.

Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Indiana, Pennsylvania

www.iup.edu/admissions/graduate

Indiana University of Pennsylvania has provided students like you with academic excellence and personal mentorship since its founding in 1875. Each year, over 2,000 graduate students from 37 countries study in over 60 professionally accredited graduate programs. By choosing IUP for your advanced degree, whether on our main campus in Indiana, PA, online or at one of our off-campus sites, you will join a community that deeply cares about its students and their personal and professional success. While over a thousand graduate students attend classes on our main campus each year, you can also decide to pursue your degree at one of four off-campus sites in the state: Monroeville, Northpointe, Johnstown and Harrisburg. Of course, you can also take advantage of the various online and hybrid (partially online) capabilities offered by programs designed specifically for working professionals, using technology like our "virtual classroom" experience. IUP is classified as a doctoral/research-intensive institution by the Carnegie Foundation, and the university also has the greatest number of Fulbright faculty scholars in the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education. As a student, you will benefit from the latest technology and state-of-the-art facilities, while also being able to explore numerous opportunities to present your research at conferences, symposia and exhibits. Our affordable tuition allows students across disciplines to earn their advanced degree at a reasonable cost. Master's and doctoral programs, along with professional certificates, are available in areas ranging from Business and Education to Nursing and Natural Sciences.

Winebrenner Theological Seminary, Findlay, OH

<http://www.winebrenner.edu>

Master of Divinity: The purpose of the Master of Divinity program is to prepare men and women for Christian ministry, whether in local church settings, chaplaincy expressions, or parachurch contexts. It equips them with the skills needed to function effectively in formal ministry.

Master of Arts in Family Ministry: The Master of Arts in Family Ministry degree is designed to integrate Christian counseling and the spirituality of soul care.

Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling: The Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling (MACC) is a 69 credit hour program which can be completed in two years of full-time study or in three or more years of part-time study. The MACC is a unique counseling program because it is theologically driven and clinically sound.

The Master of Arts in Practical Theology: The Master of Arts in Practical Theology (MAPT) equips persons for servant leadership and service in various areas associated with the Christian community's corporate life and practice.

Doctor of Ministry: The WTS Doctor of Ministry degree program affords students the opportunity to complete the program while remaining in full-time ministry. The program consists of 32 credit hours of seminars that focus on personal and professional development. One-week intensive seminars are held twice annually, in January and July, on the seminary's Findlay, Ohio campus.
