CROSS-REGISTRATIONS

Certain courses at Seton Hill College and Westmoreland County Community College are open to full-time Pitt Greensburg students. Please consult the Seton Hill and Westmoreland County Community College course schedules and bulletins that are located online at the following websites if you are interested in cross-registration:

http://www.setonhill.edu/academics/registrar/forms_documents
http://www.wccc.edu/default.aspx?PID=19

Students are permitted to cross-register for one course per Fall and Spring term provided they are full-time students.

Cross-registered courses require the approval of the student’s academic advisor before they can be processed by the Registrar. Forms are available in the Registrar’s Office, 120 Millstein Library Building

NOTES

- Effective with the start of the Spring 2015 semester, all students who are cross-registering at Westmoreland County Community College may not add, register, or switch sections in any class after the first class meeting. Please review your class schedule and make any changes prior to the start of the semester.

- If you decide to drop a cross-registration course, please process your drop through the Registrar’s Office, 120 Millstein Library Building. We will contact Seton Hill and WCCC with this information.

- Pitt Greensburg students who cross-register at Seton Hill will be asked to pay course fees for classes where additional fees are charged. The most common fees are in chemistry, biology and music and range from $80 to $150. Fees (when charged) are listed on the Seton Hill class schedule. Students will receive an invoice directly from Seton Hill.
