Duquesne University School of Pharmacy, Pittsburgh, PA <http://duq.edu/academics/schools/pharmacy>

A Long Tradition Of Success Since opening in 1925, the Duquesne University School of Pharmacy continually earns recognition as a top school of pharmacy in the United States because of outstanding academic programs, hands-on training, and nationally recognized research and leadership. Graduates benefit almost immediately—99 percent find employment with a starting salary over $110,000 on average and enjoy rewarding careers dedicated to improving health outcomes for individual patients and the community. Outside sources consistently recognize the prestige of a Pharm.D. from the Duquesne University School of Pharmacy: Recipient of a 2015 Pinnacle Award from the American Pharmacists Association Foundation Ranked third in research funding among private schools of pharmacy by the National Institute of Health Ranked second among Catholic schools of pharmacy by the U.S. News and World Report. The School of Pharmacy ensures that graduates learn the skills necessary to be successful in the present and the future and always practice with integrity. Earn a Doctor of Pharmacy, (Pharm.D.) in six years at the Duquesne University School of Pharmacy. In the first two years of the program, or the pre-professional phase, students take general science courses and build a liberal arts foundation before entering the professional phase for the remaining four years. Over 90 years of experience has given the School of Pharmacy the opportunity to prepare graduates for the changing roles of pharmacy and to develop several distinguishing features among other schools of pharmacy: A network of over 6,500 active alumni throughout the United States who can connect you to career paths and internship opportunities A trip to Washington, D.C. to explore career options with branches of the U.S. Public Health Services, visit the U.S. Pharmacopeia, and meet with legislators on Capitol Hill honing your advocacy skills for the profession Five Academic Research Centers where you can practice your hands on skills, including the Duquesne University Pharmacy, Giant Eagle Center for Pharmacy Practice, Center for Pharmaceutical Information, Center for Pharmaceutical Technology, and Center for Pharmacy Care A growing list of Academic Partners in the Pittsburgh area and at major hospitals and clinics will receive cutting edge experiential education Exchange agreements in place with and the opportunity to study abroad at schools of pharmacy in China, Italy, Japan and Africa. Earn your Doctor of Pharmacy in four years through the Duquesne University School of Pharmacy Post-Baccalaureate Weekend Program. The Weekend Pathway Program puts a new career in reach for you by combining traditional classroom courses held on the weekends on the Duquesne University campus in Pittsburgh with educational technology, enabling students to balance school, work, family and all other commitments. Weekend Pathway Program students must meet prerequisite course requirements and already hold a baccalaureate degree from a four-year accredited college or university in the United States. The Post-Baccalaureate weekend program is not a PharmCAS participant. Class size is limited to approximately 30 students.

Since 1848, Geneva College has offered traditional undergraduate, nontraditional undergraduate and graduate programs to fit students educational and career goals. Within a personalized and supportive Christian community, Geneva College offers over 50 traditional majors on campus in Beaver Falls, PA in fields such as engineering, education, and business. For adults needing to earn a bachelor's degree, Geneva's Adult Degree Programs offers accelerated, career-driven courses fully online, in Beaver Falls and in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Students can further distinguish themselves by earning a master's degree in one of the various areas of study – including leadership, MBA, counseling and higher education. Geneva offers two fully online graduate degrees – M.S. in Leadership Studies and a fully online MBA. The M.S. in Leadership Studies program is an innovative and exciting graduate program which offers life-long potential to impact leadership for a variety of organizations at multiple levels. Geneva College offers respected MBA programs that are regionally and nationally accredited. We offer the General MBA program with 3 concentrations: Finance, Operations and Marketing. MBA courses are offered in five 9-week terms each calendar year. Classes begin in January, March, May, July and October. Classes are from 6pm to 10pm and the program is offered at 2 locations: Beaver Falls and at the RLA in Cranberry, PA. Our professors possess real-world business experience, and teach from a "learn it tonight, apply it tomorrow" perspective. Students can complete the 36-credit General MBA in less than two-and-a-half years or have the option of taking MBA classes in a hybrid format by scheduling online and on ground classes each 9 weeks and completing the MBA program at their own pace. Our MBA program's mission is to integrate an excellent education in business with the Christian faith. Our MA in Counseling program is a nationally CACREP accredited licensing program with 3 concentrations: clinical mental health, marriage, couple and family, and school counseling. The program is offered at the main campus in Beaver Falls and also in Cranberry, PA at the RLA (www.theRLA.org) with a fall (Sept) or spring (January) starting term. Each concentration includes a three credit Practicum and a six credit Internship which enables you to complete the program in its entirety as a full-time student in five semesters or in a flexible part-time schedule in a three to four year completion format. Our counseling mission is to equip, educate and train students in the knowledge, skill and personal awareness necessary for them to serve as Godly professional counselors. The Master of Arts in Higher Education program is comprised of 36 credit hours. Geneva's higher education program provides solid theoretical and practical professional foundations. You chose the delivery format that best fits your needs: accelerated, institutes or the self-directed studies program. Our hope is to prepare deeply thoughtful and energized practitioners to lead in the context of higher education within God's Kingdom.
