

THE TOP FIVE REASONS TO COMPLETE THE STUDENT OPINION OF TEACHING SURVEY:

- #1 You will not receive any more e-mails once you complete a survey for each class.
- #2 Your instructor wants to know what you think.
- #3 You want to voice your opinion.
- #4 You want to offer suggestions to improve the course.
- #5 You LOVE Pitt and want to contribute to its mission of teaching excellence.

Check your Pitt e-mail and CourseWeb landing pages for Teaching Surveys.

FALL SURVEY DATES: November 23–December 13

OMET Office of Measurement
and Evaluation of Teaching
cidde.pitt.edu/omet

MY VOICE COUNTS!

That's why I always complete my Teaching Surveys.

The Cathedral of Learning

OMET Office of Measurement
and Evaluation of Teaching

cidde.pitt.edu/omet

The Cathedral of Learning

YOUR VOICE COUNTS!

Student Opinion of Teaching surveys are surveys administered online to enrolled students during the last weeks of class. Instructors may be gathering feedback about changes they made to their course, while others may be looking for new ideas. Administrators use the data to plan future course offerings.

FALL SURVEY DATES:
November 23–December 13

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
GREENSBURG

OMET Office of Measurement
and Evaluation of Teaching
cidde.pitt.edu/omet

OMET

Office of Measurement
and Evaluation of Teaching

cidde.pitt.edu/omet

