

2026 Art Show Guidelines

About the Art Show:

The Art Show @Pitt-Greensburg is intended to showcase both the artistic talent of the campus community and the surrounding southwestern Pennsylvania community. This event bridges Pitt-Greensburg's Blue & Gold Celebration to its Founders' Day, celebrating the long history and evolution of the school while looking forward to educating many future generations of students.

The exhibit will run from Monday, September 28 through Friday, October 9. Artists of all ages and skill sets are encouraged to participate. The art show will feature two main submission groups – general and judged.

The general group allows artists to display any number of pieces. From these pieces, three winners will be named "fan favorites" and awarded prizes. Winners will be chosen based on a fan favorite voting system. Voting will take place Monday, September 28 to Thursday, October 1 during Millstein Library's operating hours.

The judged category allows artists to submit up to five current pieces to be evaluated for special recognition by three judges. The top vote getter in each category will be awarded a prize. Those pieces receiving the second and third highest scores in each category will receive a certificate.

A reception to announce the winners and to celebrate the event will be held on Friday, October 2 from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be provided.

Pick-up:

The Art Show ends on Friday, October 9. There is no pick up Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10-11. Pick up artwork on Monday – Wednesday, October 12-14 between 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. in Millstein 201. We cannot be responsible for work that is not picked up. Please send a representative if you are unable to make pick up yourself, or contact the Alumni Relations Office at 724-836-7496 to make alternate arrangements.

Sale of Artwork:

The sale of artwork is permissible. For the purpose of the Art Show at Pitt-Greensburg, it is understood that the artist is creating works of art and is considered the seller, and the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg is solely providing space for the seller to display his/her artwork. The seller is not required to sell each submission, but should he/she choose to sell their artwork, then the seller will determine a selling price at the time of registration. The selling price along with the artist's name, contact information, title of piece, and medium used will be noted on the label provided by the show as described under the Submission Guidelines (see above).

All sales will be made directly between the artist and the buyer or collector. The University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg will not be involved in the sale of any artwork. The artist must contact the Office of Alumni Relations to confirm the direct pick-up of any artwork by the buyer(s). Artwork will not be removed from the art show by any party other than the artist without his/her permission.

The University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg asks that the artists consider giving a suggested donation of 20% based on their total sales. The artist's donation may go to the campus fund of his/her choice.

Gifts made to the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg provide critical scholarship assistance, valuable research opportunities, building renovations, equipment updates, and further educational opportunities. Your support of the University and the Art Show @ Pitt-Greensburg is greatly appreciated.

Liability:

Submission of artwork shall constitute an agreement to comply with all conditions set forth in the entry form. The agreement reads: I have read, and I understand the terms and conditions of this entry, and I waive any claim against the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg of any loss, damage, or theft that may occur. I enter my work of my own wish and believe the University of Pittsburgh at Greensburg to be prudent and careful guardians of my artwork.
