

University of Pittsburgh
Greensburg

Management: Concentration in Finance

undergraduate program

Management: Concentration in Finance

48 credits
Bachelor of Science

The Finance Concentration provides you with a well-rounded education in the role that finance has in a firm, its industry, and the economy. They learn how capital markets operate and focus on empirical knowledge that are useful for investment decisions.

Employment:

- Analyst/Associate
- Trading
- Emerging Market
- Credit/ Rating Analyst
- Broker
- Capital Market
- Commercial Banking
- Corporate Finance
- Financial Planning
- Insurance
- Investment Banking
- Money Management
- Real Estate

www.greensburg.pitt.edu

Core Management Courses

6 courses - 18 credits

MGMT 0021	The Management Process
MGMT 0022	Financial Accounting
MGMT 0023	Managerial Accounting
MGMT 1818	Management Science
MGMT 1820	Operations Management
MGMT 1821	Introduction to Finance

Finance Concentration

4 courses - 12 credits

MGMT 1885	Financial INSTs & MKTs
MGMT 1830	Investments
MGMT 1125	Business Economics
MGMT 0026	Personal Financial Planning

Electives

5 courses - 15 credits

1. Choose 3 courses out of any MGMT, or INFSCI.
2. Choose 2 courses out of any MGMT, HCM, or another course from approved MGMT elective list. One of the two can be an internship for 3 credits. See an Advisor for details.

Additional Requirements

1 course - 3 credits

After earning 90 credits, and fulfilling each course within the core, all Management majors must take MGMT 1955—Strategic Management, to fulfill the capstone course requirement.

Liberal Arts Courses

Management majors must take the following courses used to satisfy the General Education requirements.

*Some of the courses listed below may have prerequisites.

CS 0098	Decision Making with Excel
MATH 0120	Business Calculus*
ECON 0100	Introduction to Microeconomic Theory
ECON 0110	Introduction to Macroeconomic Theory
PHIL 1380	Business Ethics
PSY 0680	Introduction to Industrial/Organizational Psychology*
STAT 1100	Statistics and Probability for Business Management
ENGCOMP 0031	Business Writing*