

Criminal Justice Course Rotation

❖ FALL:

- Crime, Law, & Public Policy (CJ 0002)
- Criminology (CJ 0110)
- Critical Issues in Contemporary Corrections (CJ 1230)
- Junior Seminar (CJ 1925)
- Rotation of CJ Electives
- Research Methods in Social Sciences (SOCSCI 0200)

❖ SPRING:

- Crime, Law, & Public Policy (CJ 0002)
- American System of Criminal Justice (CJ 0210)
- Critical Issues in Contemporary Law Enforcement (CJ 1155)
- Senior Seminar (CJ 1950)
- Rotation of CJ Electives

❖ SUMMER: Rotation of Electives & Research Methods in Social Sciences (SOCSCI 0200) as needed

❖ INTERNSHIPS: Once students complete 60 credits, they are eligible for an internship. Internships can be completed during any semester, including the summer. Internships can be paid and also count for academic credit.