Warning: The content of this crime alert may contain graphic and sensitive information.

Attempted Burglary

University of Pittsburgh Police responded to an attempted burglary that occurred at University Courts A on September 23, 2023, at approximately midnight. Suspect 1 pushed a box fan out of the window in the kitchen and attempted to enter the apartment via the open window. The victims heard the fan falling and went to the kitchen where they confronted the suspect in the window. The two suspects then fled towards Starboard Villa Apartments.

Description of the suspect(s) is as follows:

Two white males, between 13-15 years of age with a thin build.

Anyone having information regarding this incident should call the University of Pittsburgh Police Department at 724-836-9865, reference report # 23-02826.

Additional Information:

- If you need support, in addition to the Pitt Police, the following resources are available:
  - Blackburn Center Against Domestic & Sexual Violence: 1-866-363-7272
  - University Counseling Center: 724-836-9870
  - Excela Crisis Response Center: 724-832-4465
  - Suicide & Crisis Lifeline: Dial 988
- Familiarize yourself with and implement these general safety tips into your daily routine.
- Download the Rave Guardian safety app. The app allows different options for contacting the police, including anonymous reporting options.
- The Pitt Police offer a self-defense and awareness program. Contact Officer Heather Walker, hlc33@pitt.edu, for more information on SAFE classes.
- Information on how to register to receive crime alerts via text message can be found here.